

The West Virginia Futurity

In-foal mares are nominated by December 31. The fee to nominate is $50.00 There is an additional payment of $75.00 payable in June of the two-year old year and a fee of $850.00 to enter. The races runs during the month of November each year at seven furlongs with $50,000 added. All entries must be registered with the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association.

Please note that due to a recent change that there is a breed back rule in effect that just effects the running of the West Virginia Futurity only. The rule is as follows:

“ For the purpose of participating in the West Virginia Futurity only, all mares, starting with the breeding season beginning the first day of February through the thirty-first day of July, two thousand four, and each successive breeding season thereafter shall be be bred back that year to an accredited West Virginia stallion only which is registered with the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association. The remaining races may be chosen by the committee set forth in subsection (g) of this section.”
