Stallion bonuses will not be paid unless the stallion is properly registered with the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association (WVTBA) as an accredited West Virginia Stallion. Original registration must be made before the Stallion covers his first West Virginia season. (Original registration one time only. Annual renewals must be postmarked before February 1st) Stallion must be permanently domiciled in the State of West Virginia to receive stallion bonus awards from the West Virginia Thoroughbred Development Fund. Stallions moved from the State, cannot return and stand under the same ownership, but may continue to receive bonuses on eligible progeny running in the State as long as renewal payments are postmarked before February 1st.

Stallions sold or moved from the State at the end of the breeding season, must make renewal payments annually to be eligible to collect Stallion bonuses for progeny running in West Virginia that he sired before moving from the State of West Virginia.

Reinstatement of a stallion does not allow payment of Stallion bonuses for horses conceived during the period the Stallion was not eligible. Reinstatement of a stallion returning to West Virginia is not allowed under it's previous ownership.

Upon moving the stallion out of the state, the owner must report in writing, prior to February 1st of the next year, the date the stallion physically left West Virginia and the destination. If moved out of the state during the breeding season, NO stallion bonuses will be paid for foals conceived that year. Stallions moving into West Virginia during the breeding season CANNOT collect stallion bonuses if they have covered mares the same season in another state. (Foals will be eligible for registration)

Any change of ownership or stallion location must be reported to the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association in writing.

Deceased stallions. Date death must be reported to the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association in writing prior to February 1st of the year following death. No renewal payments are necessary. Bonuses will be paid automatically after the report has been received. However, for the 10-10-10 program, this does not apply. Forms for the 10-10-10 must be filed separately with the West Virginia Racing Commission.

I hereby certify that I have read the foregoing application and affirm that every statement contained herein is true and correctly set forth, and I do hereby assert and agree as a precedent to the receiving of said registration that the same may, at any time, be summarily revoked, canceled, suspended, or withdrawn.
